Breakpoint (Volume) Discounts on Class A Share Purchases
What arrangement is best for you?

Different share classes permit you to choose the method of purchasing shares that is most beneficial to you. In choosing a share class, consider the amount of your investment, the length of time you expect to hold the shares, whether you would like to receive distributions in cash or to reinvest them in additional shares, and any other personal circumstances. Depending upon these considerations, the accumulated distribution and service fees and contingent deferred sales charges of one class of shares may be more or less than the initial sales charge and accumulated distribution and service fees of another class of shares bought at the same time. Because distribution and service fees are paid out of a fund’s assets on an ongoing basis, over time, these fees will increase the cost of your investment and may cost you more than paying other types of sales charges.

Your financial representative should recommend only those arrangements that are suitable for you based on known information. In certain instances, you may be entitled to a reduction or waiver of sales charges. For instance, you may be entitled to a sales charge discount on Class A Shares if you purchase more than certain breakpoints. Please be sure you understand these choices before investing. Class A Shares
If you purchase Class A Shares, you will pay a sales charge at the time of purchase, except for Virtus Seix U.S. Government Securities Ultra-Short Bond Fund and Virtus Seix Ultra-Short Bond Fund. Depending on which fund you purchase, the maximum sales charge can vary from 5.75% of the offering price (6.10% of the amount invested), to 2.25% of the offering price (2.30% of the amount invested). The sales charge may be reduced or waived under certain conditions. Generally, Class A Shares are not subject to any charges by the fund when redeemed; however, a contingent deferred sales charge (“CDSC”) may be imposed on certain redemptions on which a finder’s fee has been paid.

Class C Shares
If you purchase Class C Shares, you will not pay a sales charge at the time of purchase. If you sell your Class C Shares within the first year after they are purchased, you will pay a deferred sales charge of 1%.

Class I Shares
Class I Shares are offered primarily to clients of financial institutions and intermediaries, as outlined in the prospectus. If you are eligible and do purchase Class I Shares, you will pay no sales charge at any time.

Class R Shares
Class R Shares are designed to be sold only through various third-party intermediaries that offer employer-sponsored defined contribution retirement plans and other retirement plan platforms, as outlined in the prospectus. If you are eligible and do purchase Class R Shares, you will pay no sales charge at any time. Class R Shares have higher distribution and service fees (0.50%) and pay lower dividends than Class A Shares.
Class R6 Shares
Class R6 Shares are offered to specific investor types, as outlined in the prospectus. If you are eligible to and do purchase Class R6 Shares, you will pay no sales charge at any time.

See “Sales Charges” in the Prospectus to learn more.

Dealer Concessions
Dealers with whom the Distributor has entered into sales agreements receive a discount or commission as described in the “Sales Charge you may pay to purchase Class A Shares” and “Compensation to Dealers” sections of the prospectus.
