

Seth Kadushin

Director of Capital Markets, Virtus ETF Solutions
Portfolio Manager, Virtus ETF Advisers LLC

Seth Kadushin is director of capital markets at Virtus ETF Solutions, a Virtus affiliate since 2015, which operates a multi-manager ETF platform providing access to differentiated investment capabilities from select subadvisers. In addition, Mr. Kadushin serves as portfolio manager for Virtus ETF Advisers LLC.

Prior to joining the predecessor firm to Virtus ETF Solutions in 2013, Mr. Kadushin worked at Euromoney Institutional Investor, Plc, where he developed large-scale investment management programs focusing on exchange-traded instruments and alternate investment strategies.

Previously, Mr. Kadushin was an options desk strategist at Wedbush Securities (2011-2012) and the head program trader at RBS Securities (2009-2011). Prior to 2009, Mr. Kadushin held senior-level positions at Lehman Brothers and Bear Stearns (JP Morgan), where he was a member of the cross asset policy committee charged with instituting the firm's equity trading division guidelines.

Mr. Kadushin holds a B.B.A. in finance from Emory University. He earned an M.B.A. from Fordham University with a concentration in information systems. He has been working in the investment industry since 1988.