

InfraCap REIT Preferred ETF (NYSE: PFFR) Revises Dividend Payment Calendar Payment Changed to Quarterly from Monthly Basis

New York, NY – June 7, 2017 – InfraCap REIT Preferred ETF (NYSE: PFFR) announces a change in its 2017 dividend payment calendar. The payment basis is being changed to quarterly from a monthly schedule.

“The fund is index-based, and its dividend income in any period, after expenses, is passed through to fund investors,” said Edward Ryan, chief financial officer of Infrastructure Capital Advisors. “The change to quarterly payments is made in an effort to minimize the variability of payments from one period to the next.” The total amount of cash to be distributed to investors is not impacted by the change in the payment schedule.

Infrastructure Capital Advisors expects to declare future dividends on a quarterly basis, however dividends are planned, not guaranteed, for the months of January, April, July, and October of each year. The next dividend is scheduled to occur in July 2017.
