

James F. Keegan

Chief Investment Officer and Chairman, Senior Portfolio Manager
Seix Investment Advisors LLC

Jim Keegan is chief investment officer and chairman of Seix Investment Advisors LLC, an investment management affiliate of Virtus Investment Partners. Mr. Keegan has oversight responsibilities for the Seix investment teams and specific portfolio management responsibilities within the Investment Grade team. In addition, Mr. Keegan leads the Seix Investment Policy Group, which determines firm-wide asset allocation policy.

Prior to joining Seix in 2008, Mr. Keegan was head of investment grade corporate and high yield bond management for American Century Investments. In that role, he was responsible for portfolio management, strategy, credit research, and trading. Previously, Mr. Keegan was chief investment officer at Westmoreland Capital Management and managing director of investment grade and high yield fixed income at UBS Global Asset Management. At UBS, he was chairman of the investment strategy and credit policy committee and directly responsible for management of a number of funds. Earlier in his career, Mr. Keegan served as director of research and chairman of the credit strategy committee at Bankers Trust.

Mr. Keegan earned a B.S., magna cum laude, in business management from St. Francis College and an M.B.A., Beta Gamma Sigma, from Fordham University. He has been quoted or featured in a number of national publications, including the Wall Street Journal and Barron's, is a frequent guest on CNBC and Bloomberg, and authors the “Seix Investment Advisors Perspective.” He has worked in the investment management industry since 1982.