

Justin M. Kass, CFA

Managing Director, Portfolio Manager
Allianz Global Investors

Justin Kass is a portfolio manager and managing director with Allianz Global Investors. He has portfolio management, research, and trading responsibilities for the Income and Growth Strategies team.

In 2003, Mr. Kass was promoted to portfolio management and began handling day-to-day portfolio manager responsibilities for the firm's US Convertible strategy in 2005. He is also a lead portfolio manager for the firm's Income and Growth strategy since its inception in 2007. In addition to management responsibility for institutional clients, Mr. Kass is responsible for managing multiple closed-end and open-end mutual funds.

Prior to joining Allianz Global Investors in 2000, Mr. Kass interned on the Income and Growth Strategies team, adding significant depth to its proprietary Upgrade Alert Model.

Mr. Kass earned a B.S. from the University of California, Davis, and an M.B.A. from the UCLA Anderson School of Management. He is a chartered Financial Analyst® (CFA®). He began his career in the investment industry in 1998.
