Important Information

For trustee to trustee transfers, please complete the appropriate receiving custodian's trustee to trustee transfer form. This form is not intended to facilitate a beneficiary/inherited IRA transfer due to death. For revocations, refer to the SIMPLE Individual Retirement Account (IRA) Disclosure Statement for instructions and information regarding your revocation rights. All required documentation must be received in good order before the distribution request can be honored. All legal documents must be certified and a Medallion Signature Guarantee may be required. Please see the Participant Authorization Section for an explanation of the Medallion Signature Guarantee.

IMPORTANT CHANGES TO THE RULES GOVERNING INDIRECT (60-DAY) ROLLOVERS BETWEEN IRA ACCOUNTS

Effective January 1, 2015, there is a new restriction on indirect (60-day) IRA-to-IRA rollovers. An IRA participant is allowed only one rollover across all IRAs (Traditional, Rollover, Roth, SEP, SARSEP and SIMPLE IRAs) in aggregate that a taxpayer owns in any 12-month or 365-day period. As an alternative, a participant can make an unlimited number of trustee-to-trustee transfers where the proceeds are delivered directly to the receiving financial institution, successor custodian or trustee. You must contact the receiving institution to initiate a trustee-to-trustee transfer. For more information please visit the Internal Revenue Service's website www.irs.gov using the search term "IRA One-Rollover-Per-Year Rule".

2. Reason for Distribution

The distribution is being made for the following reason (check one):

- Normal Distribution*- You are age 59 ½ or older.
- Early (Premature) Distribution* - You are under age 59½, including distributions due to medical expenses, health insurance premiums, higher education expenses, first time homebuyer expenses, or other reasons. A distribution received before you attain age 59½ is considered a premature distribution and is subject to a penalty tax equal to 10% of the distribution unless an exception applies (see "Early Distributions from a SIMPLE IRA" in your SIMPLE IRA Disclosure Statement). If a premature distribution is made prior to satisfying the required two year holding period (2 years from the date on which you first participated in a SIMPLE IRA maintained by your employer) and no exception applies, then the penalty tax is increased to 25%.
- Substantially equal periodic payments within the meaning of section 72(t) of the Internal Revenue Code.*
- Permanent disability* - You certify that you are disabled within the meaning of section 72(m)(7) of the Internal Revenue Code. For purposes of section 72(m)(7), an individual shall be considered to be disabled if he is unable to engage in any substantial gainful activity by reason of any medically determinable physical or mental impairment which can be expected to result in death or to be of long-continued and indefinite duration.
- Removal of excess* - You must complete Section 3, Excess Contribution Election in its entirety.
- Direct rollover to a Qualified Plan, 401(k), TSP or 403(b)* - You are certifying that the receiving custodian will accept the IRA assets issued and that you have satisfied the required two-year holding period.
- Qualified Reservist Distribution*
- Transfer incident due to divorce or legal separation* – Contact Shareholder Services regarding additional documentation requirements.

Class C and C1 Shareholders – Shareholders withdrawing from Class C and C1 shares must indicate whether the sales charge should be taken from the redemption proceeds (gross) or taken from the remaining balance in the account (net). If no indication is made, the distribution will be processed as gross. Shareholders taking their required minimum distribution do not need to complete this. Distribution proceeds should be calculated as: Gross or Net

3. Excess Contribution Election

Instructions for the Participant: You must indicate how the return of excess should be distributed in Section 4, Distribution Amount (subsection B). A check for the proceeds will be mailed to your address of record unless the amounts are attributable to employer contributions that are being returned to the employer with your authorization. Amounts returned as excess contributions are not eligible for rollover.

Important: Please consult with your employer to discuss the appropriate steps to correct excess contributions. Amounts deferred to your SIMPLE IRA in excess of the allowable limit may be subject to a non-deductible excise tax of 6% for each year until the excess is removed. The 6% excise tax on excess contributions will not apply if the excess contribution and earnings allocable to it are distributed by April 15th of the year following the annual deferral.

Earnings on Salary Deferral and Employer Contributions - For the purpose of the excess contribution, we will calculate the net income attributable ("NIA") to the contribution using the method provided for in the IRS Final Regulations for Earnings Calculation for Returned or Recharacterized Contributions. This method calculates the NIA based on the actual earnings and losses of the SIMPLE IRA during the time it held the excess contribution. Please note that a negative NIA is permitted and, if applicable, will be deducted from the amount of the excess contribution. The IRS may impose an early distribution penalty tax on the earnings if you are under age 59½. You must file IRS Form 5329 to report any excise tax.

6. Taxes

Federal Tax Withholding Election

Federal income tax will be withheld at the rate of 10% from any distribution, subject to the IRS withholding rules, unless you elect or have previously elected out of withholding. Tax will be withheld on the gross amount of the payment even though you may be receiving amounts that are not subject to withholding because they are excluded from gross income. This withholding procedure may result in excess withholding on the payments. If you elect to have no federal taxes withheld from your distribution, or if you do not have enough federal income tax withheld from your distribution, you will remain liable for payment of federal income tax on the taxable portion of the distribution and you may be responsible for payment of estimated tax. You may incur penalties under the estimated tax rules if your withholding and estimated tax payments are not sufficient. Your below election will remain in effect until such time as you make a different election in writing to the Custodian.

- I elect NOT to have federal income tax withheld. (This option is only available for accounts registered with an address in the U.S.)
- Withhold 10% federal income tax
- Withhold federal income tax (must be more than 10%) at the following rate: _____%

State Income Tax Withholding Election

Your state of residence will determine your state income tax withholding requirements, if any. Those states with mandatory withholding will require state income tax to be withheld from payments if federal income taxes are withheld. Voluntary states let individuals determine whether they want state taxes withheld. Some states have no income tax on retirement payments. Please consult with a tax advisor or your state's tax authority for additional information on your state requirements.

- I elect NOT to have state income tax withheld from my retirement account distributions (only for residents of states that do not require mandatory state withholding).
- I elect TO have the following dollar amount or percentage from my retirement account distribution withheld for state income taxes (for residents of states that allow voluntary state withholding) $ _____ or _____%
