

Matthew Benkendorf

Chief Investment Officer, Portfolio Manager, Senior Research Analyst
Vontobel Asset Management, Inc.

Matthew Benkendorf is the chief investment officer of Vontobel Asset Management's Quality Growth Boutique, having been elevated to the position in March 2016. He is a co-architect of Vontobel's Quality Growth philosophy and style, and has been instrumental in the development of the boutique's investment approach across the Vontobel Quality Growth strategies.

Mr. Benkendorf joined Vontobel Asset Management in 1999 in trade support and was promoted to trader in 2000. He became a research analyst in 2002 and moved into portfolio management in 2006 on the firm's European Equity strategy. Since 2008, he has further developed his responsibilities and, in turn, became portfolio manager on the Global, U.S., International, and Emerging Markets Equity strategies.

Mr. Benkendorf earned a B.S.B.A in finance from the University of Denver. He has worked in the investment industry since 1998.
